AACI Sponsor Highlight: Life Insurance Buyers, Inc.

Let's be clear. We don't exist to make money or to enrich any company or individual. Simply put, we are here to help people – with cancer or any other chronic illness or disease. We don't make claims or tell anyone that we can cure them. That would be irresponsible. Sadly, that's exactly what is going on within the conventional cancer hospitals and clinics today. They are telling patients with cancer that they can cure them. It is wrong – but, I do understand that people need hope. We give them that in spades.

Last month I spoke about the numbers, who heals (generally) and who doesn't. And, I mentioned that there are a few who will not heal even though they appear to be doing everything right. I will reiterate here – because you need to know and be reminded – that those who choose Western Medicine for their cancer do not do well. The statistics say that 97% of them who undergo the regimen featuring chemotherapy will be dead within five years. FACT – no fake news here.

Many people have called us, emailed us, or sent letters asking for help. Like I said – that's what we do. However, if you are just contacting every organization (in natural medicine) to gain information to put together a plan that you think is best – more power to you. We would not be your best choice, though. This happens to us a lot. And we know what the eventual outcome is – almost all the time. We do what we do for a reason. We recommend exactly what we would do given the exact same situation that you or a loved one are facing. By the Grace of God, we have the experience and expertise – based upon years and years of similar cases – to know what works and what does not. We don't have a hundred or a thousand different protocols based upon the type of cancer you have. That would be nonsense. This “disease” has 150 different names based upon where it is located in your body, if bone or soft tissue is involved, and what specific cells are affected. The fact is (and some will argue) – cancer is cancer. Outside of the few cases that are of genetic origin, most is caused by the acidification and inflammation of tissues and cells through exposure to different forms of chemicals and radiation. Again, FACT. Not fake news. As a result, it makes no sense to treat a sickness that is caused by chemicals and radiation – with chemicals and radiation. No, instead it makes perfect sense to treat it with natural components that overcome the deficiencies that helped create it. Pure and simple, and FACT, not fake news.

So, this is what we are going to do. Actually, we are doing it right now and have been for years. If you need help, let us know. Send an email to info@americanaci.org that we will respond to as fast as we can. State your situation, including diagnosis and prognosis, and anything else that is pertinent. We will insist that you acquire the latest copy of “Killing Cancer – Not People,” as that will tell you 90% of what you need to know. Some have chastised us for just trying to cram a book down their throats. Nothing is further from the truth. The fact is that I can’t spend 9 hours on the phone telling you what is in the book. If you have an overall understanding of that, then we can spend a half hour to an hour discussing your specific situation. We have helped thousands this way. We will then set up a time for a call.

This is personalized friends – not generic. And, it doesn’t cost you anything, except the price of a book. Most “cancer coaches” will charge you hundreds of dollars an hour – then you might still wonder what to do. When we are finished, you will know exactly what to do and how to do it – of course, based upon what I would do in the same situation. No diagnosis, no prescriptions, no doctoring or pretending to be a doctor, just what I would do (there’s the disclaimer!). After that, you get to do exactly what you want to do, whether it involves natural remedies (that actually work) or chemotherapy (which mostly does not). Yes, I am a little biased since I have been witnessing the results for so many years now. And, I know what I see and I know what is real. Listen to all the manipulated statistics that you want to. That’s the true fake news. Provable.

There you go. If you need help for cancer, diabetes, auto-immune disease, neurodegenerative disease, dental, etc., etc., etc., send us an email and we will respond – in real time. Until then, seek truth, look for what’s real, question allopathic medicine – question everything if you have cancer, then formulate a plan to get the real answers. We will help – if you ask us. Blessings.

Skin Care & Poison

from Dr. Bradford S. Weeks

AACI/IWARC note: The following article from our friend, Dr. Brad Weeks, is included to give you a better understanding of cosmetics, carcinogens, and basic skin care. Remember, your skin is your largest organ and we need to give it more respect than we commonly do.

Stop Intoxicating Yourself Before 8 AM

Rain Gardener's tip #75

Dear Rain Gardeners,

We are very pleased with how powerful and beneficial Rain International's skin care system REVRI is proving to be for our friends, family and prospects.

I have long been a critic of the cosmetics and skin care industry who create toxic products which trusting people apply to their skin and hair which are a huge organ, not only of excretion, but also of absorption.

In order to make the point of how toxic cosmetics and most skin care lines are, I often ask ladies the following pointed question: "How would you like it if your husband were intoxicated each morning before 8 AM?" Of course, without exception the ladies think in terms of alcoholism and inebriation respond aghast that were that to be the case, it would be intolerable for them. To a person, they don't like the idea of being married to husbands who get intoxicated every morning.

Testimonials

Keep SOUL in your First Aid Kit

from Stephanie

“Yesterday my son got his fingers slammed in the car door! (Don't know who felt worse, my husband who shut the door or my screaming kid!) His fingers IMMEDIATELY swelled and turned purple. I ran him inside and opened a Soul pack!! I put it on his fingers which calmed him as he was just trying to lick it off as fast as I was putting it on. I had him drink the pack and kept applying Soul to the fingers. In a half hour, I checked them and the swelling was gone and they were normal colored. This morning he was using the hand just fine, no bruising of the fingers OR nails at all!! Soul totally came to the rescue!!”

GE Reflux - CORE to the Rescue

from Ashley

“My now 4-month-old son suffered with horrible acid reflux since he was 3 weeks old. Doctor tried several different medications and kept telling me to add cereal to his bottles to thicken it up. We changed his formula multiple times before finding something that agreed with him. Then they wanted to add a heartburn over the counter medicine to his bottles as well. I finally got frustrated bc nothing was working. I decided to call my friend Shawna Martin and ask her about oils. Well she said I have something else for you to try. That's when she introduced us to CORE. I said ok let's try it.

We went to his 2 month well baby checkup a couple weeks later and the doctor said whatever you are doing is working and I'm not even going to refill his medicine. (which I had already taken him off myself and just given him CORE after each bottle). It was an instant change. My husband would say he's a totally different baby. His reflux was so bad that no one would want to hold him or let alone watch him. He would sleep in a chair that inclined bc just slanting the bed didn't work!

Now he's the happiest baby, always smiling, and cooing! I started taking the SOUL and absolutely LOVE it! As you see in the picture so does my 2-year-old daughter!“

Silver vs. Fungus

from Rob

“I’ve been using the Silver Angel-ionic silver that you mentioned in your newsletter to treat my toe nail fungus and guess what, it’s working. Toe nails grow extremely slow, but watching it and visually measuring progress on my large toe nail I can see improvement going from 10% of my nail being healthy to now 45%. It has taken about 3 months after starting to take ionic silver each morning.

I’ve tried several other treatments over the past decade – all topical treatments like tea tree oil, vinegar, heat from hair dryer, and commercial products. None made a difference. I didn’t try the “prescription” treatment because a friend of mine tried it and it worked temporarily, but the toe nail fungus returned. Risky side effects, too, I'm told.

I tried the Silver Angel because some source enlightened me that if you have toe nail fungus, it is in your whole body, not just your toes. So you need to treat your whole body to treat your toes, too. That made sense, so I tried taking the ionic silver with positive results. Even after I stopped taking the ionic silver, progress continued and is continuing.

Thanks for the heads up about this cure."

Sugar Causes Cancer

by The International Juice Lady, Cherie Calbom

AACI/IWARC note: Our Advisory Board Member and International Juice Lady, Cherie Calbom, gives you another take on the relationship between sugar and cancer. Obviously, this is something that most of us in the natural world have known since 1931. Isn't it amazing that the conventional cancer industry is just discovering this? View, also, the short testimonial video that also talks about the ketogenic diet and its value to cancer patients.

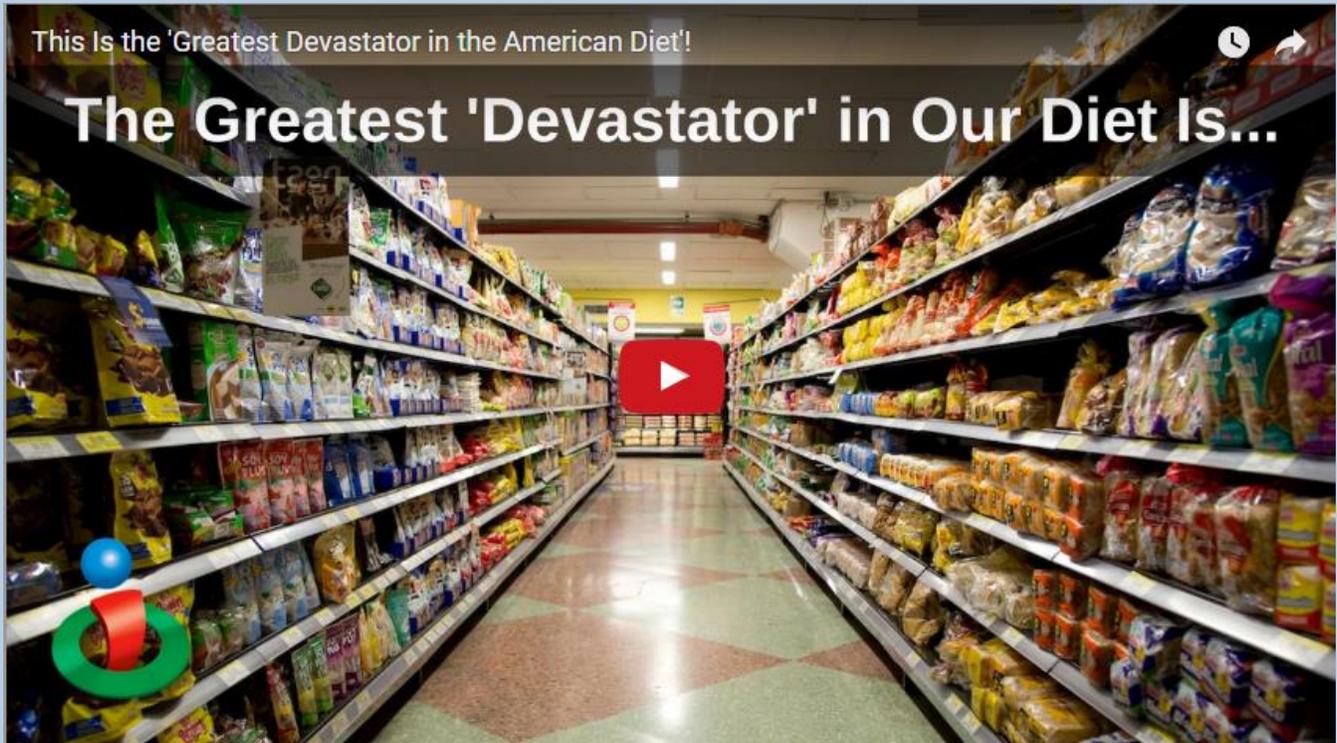

Cancer is linked to high levels of sugar in the diet. Less than one hundred years ago, in 1931, scientists discovered that cancer cells have a fundamentally different metabolism with regard to energy compared to healthy cells. They learned that malignant tumors exhibit an increase in anaerobic glycolysis—the process in which glucose is converted to fuel by cancer cells, thus creating lactic acid as a by-product. Watch and read about it here.

Juicing Recipes to Cleanse the Body of Toxins

from AACI/IWARC friend, Rebekah

Juicing has emerged as a very popular solution for many people who want to not only lose weight and get a slimmer stomach, but also achieve greater amounts of energy, fewer symptoms relating to chronic illness, and more. One of the biggest benefits of juicing is that it can help to clear your body of the various toxins that can build up throughout your system, causing side-effects such as bloating, pain, and discomfort.

Whether you're new to juicing, or you've been a part of the juice craze for some time now, the chances are that the healthy juicing recipes that we cover below will be a great way to aid in ridding your body of toxins and nourishing your system.

THE GARDEN GREEN BLEND

Most people don't realize this, but coconuts are packed full of electrolytes and potassium, which makes them excellent drinks to consume after your average workout. This blend is great for summer when you want to cleanse your body and enjoy a refreshing drink at the same time. All you need to do is crack open the coconut and pour the water into a blender, then remove the meat of a coconut with a spoon and add that too. Once that's done, you can add spinach, kale, and a banana for a great garden smoothie.

You'll need:

- 1 handful of green kale
- 1 young coconut
- 1 handful of spinach
- Half a banana

THE TROPICAL TASTE SENSATION

If you're looking for a way to brighten your morning with plenty of flavor and energy-boosting ingredients, then this is the right juice for you. Not only do you get a great range of digestive-system boosting nutrients and enzymes into your system, but the mix gently loosens and removes any toxins that might have built up during your system while you were sleeping. |

You'll need:

- Half a cup of fresh coconut water
- 1 medium kiwi
- 1 small pineapple
- 1 ripe papaya
- 1 inch of ginger

APPLE, BEET, AND BLACKBERRY JUICE

Finally, when it comes to getting rid of toxins in your system and refreshing your entire body, there are few pieces of fresh produce that are more effective than beets. This juice blend draws on the antioxidant rich and toxin-fighting power of beet juice, which has been used in the past not only as a nutritional powerhouse but also as a way to cleanse the blood too. This fantastic ingredient is brimming with nutrition, including folate, potassium, manganese, vitamin C, iron, and more. However, it's worth noting that it's a very potent ingredient with lots of taste, so you might need to add a range of other products to the mix to make the drink more palatable - particularly if you're new to juicing.

You'll need:

- About half an inch of fresh ginger
- 8 oz. of blackberries
- 2-3 small apples
- 3 small beets

WILD AND SPICY JUICE

Perfect for those who like a little kick to their morning juice recipes, this delicious wild and spicy juice is a great example of how you can add pulp to your juicing experiences to enjoy an extra boost of fiber along with your hefty dose of vitamins and minerals. Remember that the aim with this juice is to juice the products first, then add a little of the fiber that has been removed during the juicing process back into the mixture for a thicker, more textured drink.

You'll need:

- 1 small chili, including seeds
- 1 cup of raspberries
- 1 cup of dandelion leaves
- 2 cups of strawberries

THE LEAN MEAN GREEN JUICE

If you're looking for a powerful everyday solution to help you fight back against toxins, this delicious green juice could be the answer. It features a base of celery - a nutritional powerhouse that includes everything from magnesium to folic acid, potassium, iron, calcium, phosphorus and amino acids. If that wasn't enough, celery is one of the best ways to balance your PH level because it's incredibly alkalizing. At the same time, you're adding a range of other great foods like lemon, ginger, green apple, and kale, all designed to create a highly detoxifying cocktail of vitamins and minerals.

You'll need:

- 1 Lime
- A bunch of celery
- 4-5 kale leaves
- 1 Green apple
- 1 Lemon
- 1 inch of ginger
